M. H. S. CONTINUED ON 1ST CLASS LIST

BY STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS, CHAS. A. LEE

COMMENDS WORK HERE

Recommends Further Improvements —Junior High School May Be Organized Next Year

The Maryville High School has been continued upon the list of first class schools in this state by the state superintendent of schools, Chas. A. Lee. In a letter to George P. Wright he commends the work of the faculty of the high school and he also approves of the department of vocational home economics as carried on in the local high school.

Superintendent Lee, in making suggestions for further improvements for the school recommends a Junior High School.

Two letters from Mr. Lee to the secretary of the School Board, Mr. Wright which were discussed at the school board meeting last night follow:

Jefferson City, Mo.
February 8, 1924.

"Mr. Geo. P. Wright,
"Secretary of Board of Education,
"Maryville, Mo.
"My dear Mr. Wright:

"I have examined the report of our high school inspector, Mr. S. C. Richeson, who recently visited your school. As a result of his findings I am pleased to continue your high school upon the list of first class schools.

"I wish to commend your Mr. Ziegler and Mr. St. Clair for the splendid organization they have affected. The decorum of the students of your school is very commendable. The plan for making the extra curricular deserves special mention. The system of student accounting should prove valuable in solving the delinquent and retarded cases.

"For the further improvement of your school I wish to offer the following suggestions:

"First: Some of your grade rooms as well as some of your high school rooms should be provided with better seats. This should receive your attention as soon as possible.

"Second: You may find it convenient to organize a junior high school next year.

"Third: Your principal should have a better office.

"If this department can be of service to you at any time please feel free to communicate with us.

"Sincerely yours,
"CHAS. A. LEE,
"State Superintendent."

February 14, 1924.

"Mr. Geo. P. Wright,
"Secretary Board of Education,
"Maryville, Mo.
"Dear Mr. Wright:

"From information which we have received recently, we are glad to note that vocational home economics throughout the state seems to be rapidly gaining in favor with the people.

Taking the state as a whole, the enrollment, discipline, teaching, and spirit of cooperation seems to be improving.

"I have before me the report of the supervisor of vocational home economics who visited your school recently, and I am glad to approve this department in your school for this year.

"In this connection I wish to submit the following: The minimum list of reference books for this department must be secured, as the books now available are inadequate. In fact you have very few books at all for this work. I suggest that you have a bookcase with lock provided to properly care for your reference books. A coal or gas range should be provided, as there is now only an electric oven for baking purposes, and as few girls have or will have electric stoves in their homes it would be more practicable to use a more common type of stove in the laboratory. The enrollment in these classes should be greatly increased, as this course, in our opinion, is one of the most practical which the girls can take in high school.

"Very sincerely yours,
"State Board of Vocational Education.
By CHAS. A. LEE,
State Superintendent and Executive Officer."

REED STARTS NEW DRIVE ON M'ADOO

MISSOURI SENATOR ASSAILS HIS OPPONENT

OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN

Speech in St. Louis Last Night Full of Biting Sarcasm and Jabs at Former Cabinet Member

St. Louis, Feb. 26—William G. McAdoo and his activities as a lawyer for the Doheny and other interests, together with recent disclosures in Washington, were dealt with in no uncertain terms here tonight by Senator James A. Reed in the opening speech of his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Senator Reed brought his fight to his home state where McAdoo is contesting for the Missouri delegation to the national convention. In assailing different activities recently brought to light Reed said:

"I unhesitantly express the opinion not one-tenth the corruption and iniquity which has existed is yet laid bare."

After delving at length into the history of the Teapot Dome oil reserve, Senator Reed directed his fire on McAdoo and his employment by Doheny, which, he said, was shortly after McAdoo left the cabinet. He quoted extracts of Doheny's testimony before the senate committee.

Reed said McAdoo was receiving support, particularly from some of his opponents in the recent senatorial election.

"Mr. McAdoo issues the challenge," Reed said, "I therefore, am compelled to cross swords with him. These conditions force me to make personal references I would have omitted entirely had I been extended by McAdoo the same courtesies he has extended others and all others have extended me."

At the outset of his speech Senator Reed said he was "asking the indorsement of the Democracy of Missouri and the nation for the presidential nomination."

"Having been invited into the arena," he added, "I come, and give my reasons that the attorney for Mr. Doheny should not receive the indorsement of the Missouri Democracy."

Senator Reed dealt with several national issues, including governmental expenses, taxes and what he termed useless burdeaus. His speech was at the Pershing theater, in the west section of the city.

At this time, the New York Herald was published by James Gordon Bennett, and the price of a single copy of the paper was 4 cents.

TWO FORMER IDOLS FACE TRIAL TODAY

LUDENDORFF AND HITLER ARE CHARGED WITH TREASON.

PENALTY IS DEATH

Eight Other Defendants Also on Trial —Fear That Plot Will Interrupt Trial.

Munich, Feb. 26—Two fallen military idols, General Ludendorff, and Adolph Hitler, were placed on trial here today charged with high treason for their part in the revolt of last November.

In addition to Ludendorff and Hitler, there are eight other defendants. Both Ludendorff were confident of vindication. Both served in the war—Ludendorff as chief of staff to Von Hindenburg and quartermaster-general of the Germany army. Hitler served in the ranks as a soldier. Yet both are charged with high treason, the penalty for which is death. However, the attitude of both is accusers, rather than defendants.

They hope to turn the tables upon those whom they accuse of double crossing them in the famous Fascisti uprising. The whole city bristles with uniforms and weapons. The police and reischwehr are both upon war footing.

Overshadowing everything else is the fear that some plot may interupt the trial. All persons wishing to enter the courtroom are taken into ante-chamber where they are thoroughly searched for weapons.

"I only wanted to do for Germany what Mussolini did for Italy," Ludendorff said before being led into the courtroom. "I a m confident that this trial will prove that I acted to serve the best interests of my country. I was just as much taken by surprise as Dr. Kahr, former Bavarian director of the revolt."

When the prisoners were led into the courtroom, Ludendorff was the the head of the line. His head had been shaved. Hitler appeared in a threadbare cutaway coat.

Hitler was questioned first in order to establish his identity.

According to a communication to Harry C. Todd from Keith Vawter, the Gondoliers, a Gilbert & Sullivan opera, has been decided upon for next summer, and Miss Valentine is now in New York conferring with William H. DAUGHERTY TO GO AS SOON AS TRIED

FRIENDS OF ATTORNEY-GENERAL SAY HE WILL QUIT.

NO MENTION AT MEETING

Today's Cabinet Discussion Did Not Involve Daugherty in Any Way, White House Announces.

Washington, Feb. 26—The status of Attorney-General Daugherty remained unchanged after the cabinet meeting.

In view of the rumors that the cabinet was to be consulted about the Attorney-General's fate, the White House officially announced that there was no mention of Daugherty at today's meeting.

Further than that, President Coolidge had no comment to make, it was said.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Harry M. Daugherty, Attorney-General, expects to resign from the cabinet as soon as he has made his defense to charges against him in the Senate, if events do not force his retirement before them.

This was the understanding that prevailed today among his friends and closest associates. He personally believes that he can disapprove every charge made against him by Senator Wheeler, Democrat of Montana.

The Attorney-General also thinks he can prove that all of the charges were of political origin.

Strongly convinced of this and believing that President Coolidge, himself, is back of him, at least to the extent of not requesting his resignation until he has had his day in court, the Attorney-General has begun the preparation of his defense.

Another Fund Bill Is Reported to Senate

Washington, Feb. 26—The treasury and postoffice department appropriation bill was reported to the Senate today by the appropriation committee. The bill carried a total of $736,867,000, representing an addition of $6,900,000 over the measure as passed by the House.

DIGGING DEEPER TO FIND NEW EVIDENCE

TELEGRAPH MESSAGES EXAMINED BY COMMITTEE.

KEPT M'LEAN ADVISED

Publisher Is Told of Political Wire-Pulling Going on in Washington —Leased Wire Installed.

Washington, Feb. 26—Digging deeper into the tempestous oil scandal, members of the Senate investigating committee today brought out the startling disclosure that there was an almost constant stream of telegrams passing between Washington and Palm Beach last December when the most sensational exposures were coming into light.

The telegrams disclosed that the political and personal friends of Fall and McLean had kept the latter advised of the minutest developments here and the political wires that were being pulled in the investigation.

The committee examined the Western Union files behind closed doors today for nearly two hours. Members of the committee said that more than two-thirds of the messages examined related to the oil scandal. Others dealt with McLean's private affairs, financial transactions, personal loans, and instructions to his two newspapers, the Washington Post, and the Cincinnati Inquirer.

The messages relating to the oil scandal were found to be in code and the identity of the sender could not be ascertained, nor could the committee decipher them.

McLean will probably be asked to translate the messages, but one Senator evidently was able to decipher some of the code for when asked about the contents of the messages said:

"Some extremely interesting things were found. I am certain that when the telegrams are made public, you will have a beautiful story. It may be that some of these messages will wreck some political futures."

It also developed that about the time Walsh came to Palm Beach to question McLean about the $100,000 lent to Fall, McLean installed a leased wire from his home to his two papers. After that time, the committee found only a few telegrams to and from McLean.

The committee found no damaging telegrams that passed between Washington and Palm Beach for Fall. All telegrams to him were of business nature, or related to private affairs.

The committee members differed greatly as to whether the telegrams were sensational. Chairman Lenroot said that nothing startling was discovered. On the other hand, another member of the committee declared, "There is a great difference of opinion as to whether the messages are sensational. There was one or two very queer things about them."

All members of the committee expressed the belief that no definite proof of a "leak" between Fall, McLean and other officials had been discovered.

After concluding the examination of the messages, the committee has instructed officials of the local telephone company to produce all records of calls from Washington to Fall and McLean, particularly during the period that Fall was in New Orleans after leaving Palm Beach.

KEEP THE ARMY ON ITS BEAT.

With crime waves running an erratic race with the cold waves of the weatherman in the newspaper headlines, we don't hear of any movement in any large American city to cut the police force.

But despite the fact that hunger, avarice and envy rule Europe, despite the fact that the majority of nations of the world find little cause for friendliness with us at the moment, the police force of your Uncle Samuel, the United States Army, is having a hard time to get from Congress the money it needs to prevent it from becoming numerically a has-been.

That Army walks a beat which is one vast jewelry window, chock full of the greatest assortment of riches ever assembled at one time in the history of the world. It guards a composite bank vault which contains more gold than there is in the rest of the world. It is the defense we have set up for all our national wealth, aggregating the stupendous sum of four hundred billion dollars.

It is almost inconceivable that proposals to cut the size of the Regular Army should be made now, with world affairs as they are. Yet Secretary of War Weeks, in his annual report to President Coolidge, declares that he encounters a strong sentiment that present Army expenditures, small as they are relatively, are unnecessary.

The present Army and Navy expenditures, rated as defense insurance, amount to less than $1.50 per thousand on our national wealth of $400,000,000,000. The country at present maintains only one soldier for each $2,500,000 of national wealth, the lowest proportion in seventy years. Every argument supports Mr. Weeks' plea that Congress increase the number of enlisted men in the Regular Army to 150,000. No cost is too great, when, as he truly says, "the cost of national defense is the price of freedom."—American Legion Weekly.

Sells One Carload of Essex and Hudson Autos

Old-Fashioned, Hand Made Methods Of Fathers Are Prevalent In One Motor Car Plant.

"In these days of automatic machinery turning out enormous numbers of motor cars, it is refreshing once in a while to hear of a product brought into being under the old-fashioned, hand-made methods of our fathers," observes Clary-McJimsey Hudson-Essex distributors.

"Imagine, if you can, a concern in the motor car industry where there is not one single set of dies or stamping presses, where men work unhurriedly, where the individual skill of each workman is of vital importance.

"Then imagine this concern increasing the skill of its men by accepting only contracts for first-grade products. Consider a system under which the older workmen instruct the boys—in many cases it father and son—in the secrets of their trade. Last of all imagine this plant located in a small New England town, in which it has been carrying on its business for three quarters of a century."

"Doesn't sound much like the bustling, hustling automobile business, does it?

"Well, there is such a plant. It is located in Amesbury, Mass. If you'll look that up on the map, you'll see that it is in the quiet, historic valley of the Merrimac River, 'way up near the northern border. Long before the automobile business was thought of, this institution was building fine horse driven carriages.

"My especial interest is that since 1916, this concern has done nothing but build the finest grade of enclosed cars for the Hudson Motor Car Co. Year after year, Hudson contracts for its output.

"At present, their product is the Hudson Super-Six sedan. Just a glance or two will show anyone where these workmen, with their individual skill and their individual ideas of what is genuine quality workmanship, produce an article of a different and finer type. To the man who wants a truly fine motor car, it is just the right choice.

"When to the beauty and comfort of the body you add the power, sureness and smoothness of the Super-Six chassis, you have a carriage which genuinely typifies the old-fashioned quality and character which our fathers and grand-fathers liked to have built into their possessions."

The local agency has sold one carload of Hudson and Essex cars.

Nestling in the heart of the Ozark Mountains, surrounded by the historic spots so well perpetuated in the "Shepherd of the Hills" is the picturesque little town of Reed's Spring. It is so named because of the huge gushing springs that gush a pathway here and there through the town. The scenic White River branch of the Missouri Pacific railway speedily brings one to this sylvan retreat.

It is not generally known that silver is produced annually in small commercial quantities in Missouri, through the refining of lead and other heavy ores.

The protection of the head waters of Missouri's navigable streams is of great importance and since these watersheds are in great danger through the wholesale destruction of the state's forests, the question of reforestation becomes a vital one. Under the Weeks law, Missouri as well as other states may have the advantage of reforestation projects at no cost to the state whatever. The State legislature needs only to pass an enabling act, permitting the federal government to acquire such land for reforestation projects.

ROSENDALE WILL BE HERE THURSDAY

TO PLAY SPOOFHOUNDS LAST GAME OF SEASON

HAS ENVIABLE RECORD

Coach Ebert Pointing His Quintet for this Tilt—Sends in Entry List for Tournament

With a string of eight victories and the sting of two defeats the Spoofhounds enter the last game of the season Thursday night before the Northwest High School basketball tournament with the strong Rosendale team.

The Rosendale quintet was runner up in the out-door tourney held at the State Teachers College last fall for teams that had no football teams and since then has met with remarkable success during the entire season. The only team that has been able to defeat the Rosendale five is the Maitland team which won the tournament last fall. Lafayette High School of St. Joseph, which defeated the Black and Green basketball shooters, was forced to bow to the Rosendale team in the early part of this month. The visitors that will be here day after tomorrow defeated the Cubs of the College last week in a preliminary game when Springfield played the Bearcats.

With such an aggregation that the Spoofhounds will have to contend with Thursday night Coach Harold G. Ebert of the Maryville High School is pointing his men for this game. Captain Chick may be declared eligible by the faculty to participate in this game.

The game will be held in the High Schol gymnasium and will start at 8 o'clock. There will be no preliminary game. Sam Dubin of Bedford, Ia., has been secured to officiate.

The entry list of the Spoofhounds for the annual boys tournament of the Northwest Missouri Athletic Association to be held on Friday and Saturday, March 7-8, at the College gymnasium, has been sent in to the secretary, Coach Ebert announced yesterday.

Olympic Try-Outs Attract Interest of National Guard

Bulletins were received at the armory of Battery C today concerning the army try-outs for participants in the American team that will represent the United States in the Olympic Games to be held at Paris, France, on and after July 1, 1924.

Major Rolf Raynor said this morning that the War Department is eager for the different Corps Areas in the United States to determine the amateur standing of members of the National Guard units throughout the country for eligibility in the preliminary try-outs. The Seventh Corps Area elimination contests will be held preliminary to the final army try-outs, the latter to be held in some of the large Eastern cities. At these try-outs the membership of the army teams will be made.

The army is to hold its own try-outs and will be under the direction of the American Olympic Committee and will be held in different parts of the country.

The Olympic program in which the army is mostly interested is: rifle shooting, revolver shooting, horse riding competition, swimming, boxing, wrestling and track and field events with the modern penthathlon holding the biggest interest. The modern pentathlon consists of revolver or pistol shooting, swimming, fencing, cross country horse riding and cross country running.

It is contemplated that final army try-outs for track and field events will be held May 4, the place yet to be set.

Further information on the Olympic try-outs can be secured from the Battery C.

RECOMMENDED BY HER DOCTOR

Found Strength by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Kankakee, Illinois.—"My mother-in-law always took your medicine for weakness, and then in the Change of Life it did her so much good that she induced me to take it for a weakness I had for a year and a half. It has strengthened me and now I have a nice baby boy. I do all my own housework now, and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound whenever I have the opportunity. I am taking it again for weakness, as my family doctor has recommended it for this purpose."—Mrs. HARRY COULOM, 984 N. Harrison Ave., Kankakee, Illinois.

Real Evidence of Merit

For the relief of female weakness, pains and backache, nervousness and irregularities, with other troubles common to women, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine.

Its worth is thoroughly established by such letters as the above. There are women everywhere, who, having received benefit, gladly tell other women about it. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Boils

THERE is a reason for everything that happens. Common-sense kills misery. Common-sense also stops boils! S. S. S. is the common-sense remedy for boils, because it is built on reason. Scientific authorities admit its power! S. S. S. builds blood-power, it builds red-blood-cells. That is what makes fighting-blood. Fighting-blood destroys impurities. It fights boils. It fights pimples! It fights skin eruptions! It always wins! Mr. V. D. Schaff, 557 15th street, Washington, D. C., writes:

"I tried for years to get relief from a bad case of boils. Everything failed until I took S.S.S. I am now absolutely cured, and it was S.S.S. that did it."

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Battery C May Go to Ft. Riley This Summer

Adj.-Gen. W. A. Raupp Makes Announcement of National Guard Training Camps—Date Uncertain

The Kansas City Times this morning in announcing the dates for the National Guard encampments this summer, as given out by Adj.-Gen. W. A. Raupp of Jefferson City, was to the effect that the 128th Regiment of Field Artillery will spend two weeks training at Fort Riley, Kan. The dates are yet to be announced by Adj.-Gen. Raupp.

As Battery C is a unit of the 128th Field Artillery the boys of the Battery were jubilant to hear of Fort Riley, Kan., as a possible training camp for them this summer. Last summer Battery C trained at Fort Sill, Okla., and the members of the local unit said they got enough sand to last for five years.

It was thought by Battery C officers up until today that the 128th Field Artillery would entrain this summer for Fort Sill, as last year, and the tentative date July 20 to August 4, but the announcement of Adj.-Gen. Raupp changes the aspects and the dates may be set earlier in July.

Major Rolf Raynor said this morning that notice of the dates for the summer training camp for the 128th would probably be received this week.

The dates and camps for the other units of the state are: 138th Infantry, 140th Infantry, 110th Infantry, 35th Division Headquarters Co., tank company of 35th at Camp Clark, Nevada, July 13 to 28. The 203rd Regiment of anti-air craft July 2 to 16, at Fort Sill.

ST. JOSEPH CITIZEN SAYS KARNAK ENDED SEVENTEEN YEARS SUFFERING

"I don't wonder that so many people are talking about Karnak these days, for what the medicine has done in my case has started me talking about it too," states J. D. Owens, popular resident at 823 Lincoln street, St. Joseph, Mo., in telling how the medicine has relieved him of troubles from which he had suffered for seventeen years.

"This new medicine has no equal," he continued, "and has been worth its cost many times over to me. For seventeen years my kidneys and stomach had given me all kinds of trouble, and it had begun to look like I would never be a well man again. My stomach was in such terrible condition I would be miserable for hours after every meal, and my kidneys just caused me suffering and torture that words fail to express. I had awful headaches too, and nights my sleep was so restless and broken that mornings I felt worse than on going to bed. I was run down I had scarcely any life or pep, and my condition was causing me no end of worry.

"But this Karnak has ended my suffering and fixed me up like I never thought it possible for anything to do. It has put my stomach in such fine condition that I can eat just anything set before me now with out it ever causing me a particle of trouble. My kidneys no longer worry me and nights I sleep like a log and get up mornings feeling hale and hearty and ready for a good day's work. I have gone up several pounds in weight, and have so much new strength and energy that I simply feel like a man made over. I have made Karnak our family medicine now, and there's not a better on earth."

Former Residents Have Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hudkins of Wilbur, Wash., Formerly Lived in Jackson Township Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hudkins of Wilbur, Wash., formerly residents of Moore Ridge, east of Maryville, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on February 16 at their home in Wilbur. Mr. and Mrs. Hudkins are known to many residents in Jackson township in this county. Mr. Hudkins came to Nodaway County in 1869 and their wedding took place in Maryville in 1874. They resided in the county for a number of years and then moved west.

The Spokane, Wash., Spokesman-Review had the following account of the wedding anniversary:

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hudkins was celebrated Tuesday, and 26 years have been spent in this district. They emphatically state that "not one minute" have they regretted coming to the Big Ben.

Arriving during a prosperous era, Mr. Hudkins invested his capital of $1500 to advantage. He bought "on time" a half section near Sherman and the first season's crop paid for the land, $2875. He has since added to this until he has acquired three sections.

Mr. Hudkins says that the highest price he paid for any quarter was $5000, and the highest price he received was $17,000 for a quarter in 1920. The major part of his holdings are in the Sherman region.

In 1906 Mr. Hudkins retired from farming and one-half of the property was distributed among his children. He was born in West Virginia in 1847. Mrs. Hudkins was born in Iowa in 1854. Their wedding took place in Maryville, Mo., in 1874.

Children Have Prospered

Their eldest son, Frank Hudkins, a farmer of Sherman, has served four years as county commissioner. Their daughter, Mrs. Elmer Jones, is prominent in church and social life of the same community; another son, Charles Hudkins, Salem, Ore., was for 13 years cashier of the Wilbur State bank.

Another son, Bert Hudkins, in California, was many years cashier of the Farmers' State bank here: Harry Hudkins, now dead, was a prosperous wheat grower and Daniel Hudkins is a successful farmer.

Have 12 Grandchildren

One daughter, Nora Hudkins, died before they came west. They have 12 grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Hudkins received flowers and other gifts from relatives and from old-time friends, although the day was celebrated in a very quiet manner. Mrs. Mary Patrick Mold, and her two sons, Paul Patrick, and Gordon Patrick, were present. Mrs. Patrick is a sister of Mrs. Hudkins.

Ed Kuster at Hospital.

Ed Kuster, who operates a greenhouse north of Maryville, is seriously ill of uremic poisoning at St. Francis hospital. He has suffered several convulsions and fell about 8 o'clock yesterday morning in his greenhouse. His condition was slightly improved today.

Miss Mary Gex, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gex of Graham, who underwent a blood transfusion for hemorrhages of the nose and gums last Wednesday in St. Joseph, is improving.

"Foreign Service" Is Rev. Allison's Subject

Tells of Duties of the United States Ambassadors and Consuls and Perplexing Problems.

"Foreign Service" was the topic of a talk by the Rev. S. P. Allison, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, to the members of the High School History Club this morning. As Reverend Allison was at one time a consul for the United States government to Guatamala, his talk on the relations of various governments especially between the United States, was especially interesting.

Reverend Allison told of the difference between the duties of the consul and the ambassador. He also mentioned the inadequate salaries which the ambassadors receive because of the many expenses and duties they must assume.

The pastor told of the many vexing as well as pathetic incidents which the consul must contend with, giving personal experiences. Illustrations of the different kinds of legal papers issued to the consul and pictures of foreign countries were shown by the Reverened Allison.

Miss Anna Walker of Burlington Junction was the guest today of Judge and Mrs. Jesse F. Robertson.

Hart Trial Put off Until March 24

(St. Joseph News-Press)

When Judge Utz allowed a change of venue to Judge Allen's division, of the first degree murder case of Charles Hart, the defense applied to Judge Allen for a continuance. The case was then set for trial March 24. Hart is charged with shooting and killing John Less, a police patrolman, last October, after he had been placed under arrest.

When the case was called in the criminal division of the circuit court Monday morning, DuVal Smith, prosecuting attorney, announced ready. John Heffley and Stephen K. Owen, attorneys for Hart, then filed and application for a change of venue, alleging that Judge Utz was prejudiced. Judge L. A. Vories also was excluded as a possible judge, as he also was charged with being prejudiced. Charles Snyder, 1015 Felix street, and C. F. Barnes, 216 East Michel street signed the affidavit alleging that the two jurists were prejudiced against the defendant.

Hart, who is an ex-convict, is charged with shooting Less when the officer was attempting to catch him after he had broken away from a group of officers. The shooting occurred at Third and Felix streets. Hart had been taken out of the bar at the Elms Hotel. He escaped at the time, but was arrested three days later at a farm house near Elmo, Mo., where he was in hiding. He was traced to the farm by St. Joseph police.

Kenneth Hull, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hull, will undergo an operation for appendicitis tomorrow morning at St. Francis Hospital.

Jerry Vaughn, living northwest of Maryville, was taken to St. Francis hospital last Friday and underwent an operation the following day. He is doing nicely.

W. J. Sotter of LaGrange, Mo., a representative of the Missouri Farmers Association, was a business visitor in Maryvile yesterday.
